

<http://speed.economictimes.indiatimes.com/comments/postid-10166239.cms>

India Green Reality Pvt. Ltd. (IGR), a realty company which is into constructions and furnishing luxurious living spaces and providing amenities, is launching a book named 'Vandana' in tribute to Literature Laureate Rabindranath Tagore on his 151st birth anniversary.

2 days ago via web

<http://economictimes.indiatimes.com/news/news-by-industry/et-cetera/india-green-reality-to-launch-a-book-vandana-in-tribute-to-rabindranath-tagore/articleshow/14150160.cms>

15 JUN, 2012, 05.40PM IST, ASHOKE NAG, ET BUREAU

India Green Reality to launch a book 'Vandana' in tribute to Rabindranath Tagore

India Green Reality Pvt. Ltd. (IGR), a realty company which is into constructions and furnishing luxurious living spaces and providing amenities, is launching a book named 'Vandana' in tribute to Literature Laureate Rabindranath Tagore on his 151st birth anniversary.

India Green's initiative brings to light an archive of unrevealed possessions that are not only rare but also priceless. The collection also has a section which contains numerous diary pages replete with tributes to Tagore by eminent personalities of India from different fields of art and culture.

Some of them are unusual drawings, while others are exceptionally personal words written as homage. Acquiring them all together makes it an asset-extraordinary. All the stamps, posters, miniature sheets, lobby cards, booklets and memoirs come from the exclusive collection of a freelance journalist, a philatelist and an ardent lover of Rabindranath, who had gone to the ultimate extent to procure these valuables from every possible source.

This book also contains an unpublished letter by the poet himself to late Amiyo Bagchi, lyricist of yesteryear, about the drama Raktakarobi written by Tagore himself.

Amitava Samanta, director, India Green Reality Pvt Ltd, said, "The book that will be launched contains all the essential facts and information which is rare in piece and this book is a graceful compilation for a proud possession as a collector's copy. We are also publishing this copy in other parts of the country to let the masses know about Kaviguru in depth."

Avijit Dhara, operation head, India Green Reality Pvt Ltd, said on the occasion, "This is not only a collector's book, this is the book on which we can feel proud to be an Indian as well as Bengali. With due respect to everyone, we must say that whatever we know about Tagore that is not enough and this gathering of knowledge about him will never end even we complete the journey of life".

This book 'Vandana' will be launched on June 17, 2012 in the august presence of renowned personalities to make the occasion unforgettable. The occasion will be subsequently followed by splendid and magnificent musical compositions by acclaimed musicians.